

Know This

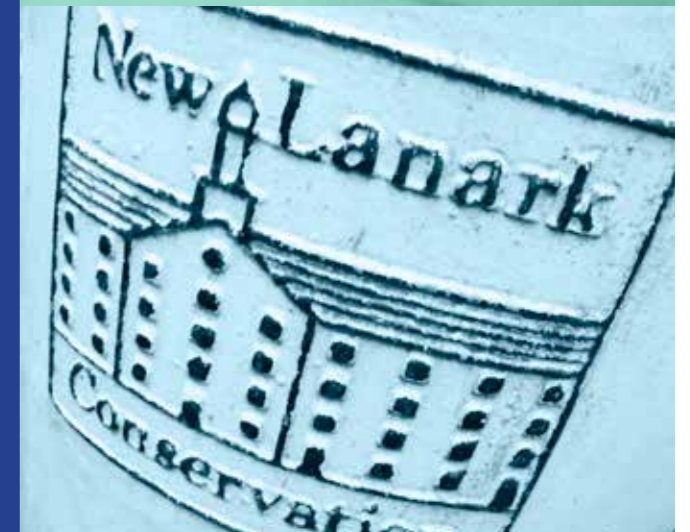

Champs 2014

As part of the 2014 IRISS Champions' event, a number of Champions made a ninety second 'Know This' presentation.

Within the inspirational setting of New Lanark, wise words were expressed and top tips were shared.

This document has been produced to remind you of every talk, with each summary written by the presenter.

USING SOCIAL MEDIA
TO IMPROVE MY KNOWLEDGE, LEARNING & EVIDENCE-BASED PRACTICE.

Debbie Lucas
Staff Development Officer - Practice Learning
South Lanarkshire Council

Making a successful Transition from student to newly-qualified social worker: Conference 22nd January 2015

Martin Kettle
Senior Lecturer and Programme Lead
Glasgow Caledonian University

TRIBAL LEADERSHIP IS A VALUE-BASED MODEL FOR CULTURE CHANGE

TOP IDEA:-

EVERYONE CAN BE A LEADER

Clare Phillips

Team Manager - Learning and Development - Social Work Services
Dumfries and Galloway Council

Mark Lister

Business Management Consultant
Lister McDonald

Good Leadership - analogy of the rubber band
↓
recognise leaders have to take risks (feel the fear, but do it anyway), stretch oneself & others to meet optimum potential and work towards and be committed to The Vision

Isobel Anderson
Assessment Centre Manager
People Workforce Development Team
Angus Council

Don't wait for a brain injury to learn how to manage your brain function well

- leave your desk at lunch
- give your brain a break
- be creative
- build relationships

Barbara Davis
Practice Support Officer
Social Work Training and Development, Care and Learning
Highland Council

In this new world, all will know that far more happiness can be obtained by union, than by disunion.
Robert Owen

Enjoy!

Share our online & hardcopy resources

